[illegible] Oct 18—Almost every hour brings [illegible] depredations by the Indians upon [illegible] located [illegible] On Sunday [illegible] camp [illegible] near Laramie Peak [illegible] Laramie river and the [illegible] volunteers was [illegible] killed [illegible] on his ranch [illegible] He fought the Indians during the whole day, killing two. A large body of Indians [illegible] camped at the head of the North Laramie distant from Laramie City [illegible] miles. A party of [illegible] who went in search [illegible] Ashenfelter the [illegible] mail carrier from [illegible] City who was due at Camp on Monday night, returned to-night [illegible] having [illegible] no trace of the missing man.

New York Registry.

NEW YORK, Oct 18.—Total registration of voters to-day [illegible]

The Times on the heavy registry says editorially the [illegible] registration prove [illegible] interest [illegible] contest [illegible] campaign but we also [illegible] fraudulent voting. We should [illegible] number of legal voters in this city [illegible] registered we should have after making the usual deduction [illegible] as the probable number of those who would [illegible] As result of the two days of registration there are already enrolled the names of [illegible] voters should registration of two concluding days bear usual proportion to number enrolled during the first two days, we shall have an amount of fraudulent votes on rolls far in excess of anything ever seen in the palmiest ring of Tammany Hall has conceived of [illegible] election frauds of 1868. It would be well for those who are responsible for such scheme to consider what might happen were the Union to turn upon the number repeaters in New York and it would also be well to have some means adopted promptly for sending a deputation of both leaders and accomplices to the penitentiary. The law is effective enough if it only be enforced.

Sunset Cox Re-nominated.

NEW YORK, Oct 19—Cox was re-nominated for Congress from the 6th district, and D. A. Wells from the 11th yesterday. Elijah Ward nominated from 10th.

Business Reviving—Railroad Shares Rising.

NEW YORK, Oct 19—The Express says the recent improvement in general business [illegible] the growing conviction that the railroad war is nearly closed and large traffic in trunk lines doubtless increased confidence in railway property and make stocks more active. The rise in wheat in Chicago to-day though small compared with yesterday and not fully sustained and the heavy receipts of wheat at lake ports generally have influenced the market considerably. The Northwestern railroad is reported crowded with business, and the Eastern roads are similarly burdened with freight from Chicago.

Six White Men Ambushed and one Killed at Edgefield, C. H.

COLUMBIA, S C, Oct 19—Six whites returning home from a Democratic mass meeting at Edgefield C H near dark last evening, were fired into by colored men in ambush. One was killed instantly and another severely wounded. Maj Kline and other U S officers at the request of the whites, went to the spot and while viewing the body a white man sent for the coroner was also shot at from ambush and his leg shattered and bone wounded. The meeting had been quiet and orderly.

Terrific Wind.

KEY WEST, Oct 19—A terrific wind has been blowing here ever since last night. The steam tug Geoffrey Kliber, from Philadelphia went ashore on a reef and it is feared all hands are lost.

Boss Tweed Has Arrived.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19—Mr Hunt better known as Richard Tweed in this city and Mr Sands known as Mr King, who were with Wm M Tweed at Vigo when he was arrested, arrived here yesterday from England.

New York Politics.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19—The Tammany county convention met to-day Henry L. Clinton presiding, and made the following nominations: For mayor, Smith Ely Jr; for justice of superior court John J. Friedman; for marine court of justice Jas P Sinnott; for surrogate Delano C Calvin; for sheriff Bernard O Kelly; for county clerk, Henry A Gumbleton.

Troops for South Carolina.

FORT MONROE, Va. Oct. 19—Gen. Barry received telegraphic instruction from Washington this morning to send four companies of artillery from this post at once to Columbia S C to report to Major General J F Ruger, commanding the department.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. Oct 19 1876—Battery B 1st U S artillery and ten men from Battery K now at Fort Adams received orders to proceed forthwith to Columbia S C.

Morrissey's Self-Sacrifice.

NEW YORK, Oct 18—At a meeting of the anti-Tammany conference committee this afternoon at Irving Hall a letter addressed to Hon E B West from Hon John Morrissey was received in which he tendered his resignation as member of the executive conference committee, and also severed his connection with it as a political body, stating that he esteemed the success of the Democratic ticket at the coming election of infinitely greater importance than the success of any mere office seekers. He regarded the action of the convention last Saturday as inimical to the interest of the Democratic party.

The feeling on the receipt of the letter was that Morrissey should be expelled from the convention. The chairman informed him by letter that his resignation was accepted with great pleasure, and it was well rid of one who was engaged in conspiracy and holding secret conferences with the enemy especially with John Kelly with a view of surrendering the organization to Tammany Hall. He also stated that the body appreciated his sentiments in regard to the success of the Democratic ticket. It will be understood that the treacherous course he had been pursuing solely for the purpose of promoting his own personal ends.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Alabama Claims.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—The Court of Commissioners of Alabama Claims met to-day. Three hundred fifty six cases remain to be considered.

A Cool Request from Sitting Bull.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs to-day received a letter from Indian Agent Mitchell dated Fort Peck Montana Sept 22d conveying intelligence that Sitting Bull asks permission for his warriors to come into that agency to trade for ammunition. The letter says Little Bull, Elk and Grips and a chief of that band arrived on the evening of the 23d inst six nights out from Sitting Bull's camp bearing the application of Sitting Bull.

Sensational Story Corrected.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18—The Tribune's Washington special says: The sensational statement as to the concentration of 10,000 troops from the Department of the Atlantic at Columbia, are made in nearly all of the Democratic papers. They are not tenable. A staff officer of Gen Sherman says to-night that such stories are mischievously false, as there are less than 5,000 troops in the Department of the Atlantic which are available for any purpose whatever. The soldiers of the reunion of the Army of the Tennessee are very much excited at the southern situation. There is a great deal of belligerent talk among them. Some of their foremost men say with earnestness that if they should ever take the field again they would follow Sherman's plan and destroy State lines.

Meeting of the Army of the Tennessee.

A letter was read from C J Biggs of Virginia in which he said: Between McPherson and myself there always existed the warmest personal [illegible] although in the late civil war we were naturally on different sides. It never for a moment suspended our personal relations and mutual friendship. A satisfactory report was made on the subject of the McPherson monument in Washington [illegible] which it appears that a monument will be erected over McPherson's remains at Clyde Ohio. Subscriptions will be received for that purpose. Gen Bullock presented [illegible] remarks which were received with much favor a large and handsomely executed photograph of the late Gen McPherson. The society then adjourned [illegible] [illegible] Gen. Logan for the thought which prompted its execution we transfer to your care a statue significant of [illegible] unselfish patriotism and gentle determination [illegible] loved and lamented commander Maj Gen J B McPherson. The statue was then unveiled with cheer from the crowd, music by the Marine band and the firing of guns.

[illegible] Sherman then [illegible] who delivered [illegible] tribute to the memory of Gen McPherson. [illegible] the statue is an [illegible] It is [illegible] a massive [illegible] pedestal [illegible] Society held a meeting in the evening and [illegible] of the Army of the Tennessee [illegible] President Gen Sherman having introduced him to make an address [illegible] he was very happy [illegible] old comrades [illegible] commanders of the Army of the Tennessee and felt proud [illegible] General Sherman could make a better speech than [illegible] were also made by Chief Justice Waite and [illegible] Garfield after which the meeting adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Oct 19—The Society of the Army of Tennessee at a short business meeting this morning elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Gen Sherman; Vice Presidents, Generals Logan, Cole, Woodworth, [illegible] Maj Powell, Capt W. A. Clark, Col Knox, [illegible] Capt. Steel, Lieut. Stevenson, Maj. W. [illegible] Nor[illegible], Maj. Spoor and Capt. Eaton; Recording Secretary, L. M. Dayton; Corresponding Secretary Gen Hickenlooper; Treasurer Gen Force. St Paul, September 9th was chosen for place and time of next annual meeting, and Gen. M. M. Bean was elected orator. Thanks were tendered to the McPherson monument committee and to Gen. Logan who originated the enterprise. On motion of Col Markel thanks were tendered to Gen Babcock, commissioner of public buildings and grounds for procuring the design for the pedestal of the monument and for his arrangements in making the unveiling of the statue a complete success. A letter was received stating that the grandmother of the late Gen. McPherson who was invited to be present at the dedication of the monument died before the receipt of the letter aged 99. After some further business the society adjourned to visit Mount Vernon.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19—The society of the Army of the Tennessee to-day visited Mount Vernon as the guests of the citizens of Washington. A magnificent collation was supplied on the boat by a committee of citizens of Washington. On going down and coming up the Potomac river salutes were fired from Fort Washington.

Change in the French Cabinet.

The World's Washington special announced in Washington to-night on authority of the French legation that Duke de Cases has resigned the portfolio of foreign affairs of the French Cabinet in favor of Count De Chaudory, recently French Ambassador at Madrid. The change is thought to indicate an intention on part of the French to take an active part in the solution of the Eastern question, it being understood that De Cases is in favor of complete abstention of France from taking any part at all in the pending trouble.

Treasury Order.

WASHINGTON, Oct 19—The Treasury department has issued a circular requiring sound cars to be used in transporting across the continent [illegible] merchandise subject to import duty.

Death of Frank P. Blair.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19—Francis P. Blair, a veteran journalist and politician died yesterday at his residence Silver Springs, Md., aged 87.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

LONDON, Oct 18—The Times editorially says the hopes we have so anxiously cherished must we fear, be at length abandoned, and we must recognize the fact that negotiations are practically at an end and that the two belligerents are now face to face in Europe. Turkey must be left to the consequences of her fate. Another 24 hours has brought no relief to the tension under which we are laboring and events are evidently moving too fast on the Danube to be arrested by the slow projects of even a telegraphic diplomacy.

The Daily Telegraph in a leading article, says England, much as she loves and desires peace, must wage war from end to end of the world rather than permit the Russian flag to be hoisted at Constantinople. Lord Derby justly said that for British interests the Eastern question centered in Constantinople and we hold it clear to all sensible and resolute Englishmen that at the first overt invasion of Turkish territory the British fleet with the assent of the Sultan should most assuredly cast anchor in the Golden Horn. Those to whom such a step might appear like help for the Turks may take comfort for it would simply be an act to secure British security and accomplished in the name of and for the protection of British rights. If it were not done Asia from Scutari to Shanghai would know and proclaim immediately that we had abdicated the sceptre of the East and commerce along all our Oriental lines would be at the mercy of a future Black Sea squadron.

The Standard's dispatch from Belgrade says there is some talk of a proposal for armistice until [illegible] It matters little what proposal is made. It is the opinion of well informed people that the Russians are bent on carrying on the war until she gains a clear road to Constantinople only the army of [illegible] will make her swerve. It is tedious to repeat this every day but it cannot be too strongly impressed on Europe that preparations are making in Servia utterly inconsistent with the pacific professions which the St Petersburg cabinet may put forth. If Russia was for peace the preparations would be insanity.

The Times says it is stated that orders have been given by the war office to the commander in chief to hold the 1st army corps in readiness for immediate dispatch to the Mediterranean also that plans for the defense of Constantinople prepared by the Royal Engineers have been forwarded to the admiral commanding the British fleet in Besika Bay. The Times states there is nothing but what is ordinary and necessary in calling the cabinet to order in such an emergency and will be only common sense to await result of deliberations before giving credence to less authentic statements. No such measures as those reports can be taken without consideration of cabinet and [illegible] council since events took their present turn will be held to-day. For the purpose of action at sea we are as near the seat of probable disturbance as any other power. Much more must happen before English interests are menaced so as to call for immediate interposition. It is not to be denied that if great danger might arise we must be prepared to defend all points threatened but the mere danger of Turkey will not precipitate such measures. Neither parliament nor country would ever hear of going to war on behalf of Turkey. She had her opportunities and has thrown them away. It would be folly to expend the smallest amount of blood shed and treasure in their support.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—A Paris correspondent of the Times reports that symptoms of accord between Russia and Germany become evident and unfortunate Austria placed between two formidable neighbors must ultimately obey them. The only thing which keeps Russia back is that Austria's neutrality is not enough for her. She wants Austria's co-operation. France and England are the only powers that sincerely desire peace. The Russian programme which will now be put forward is one which Turkey will rather fall by the sword than accept. England and France should have an understanding and force their peaceful views on Turkey.

LONDON, Oct 19—The stock exchange this morning opened freer from the panicky feeling of yesterday and stocks were slightly firmer. Consols were at last night's closing prices. Russian and Egyptian about one percent and Turkish fraction [illegible] higher but Hungarian were one per cent lower. There are no indications of the recovery of confidence.

LONDON, Oct. 19—The English and continental bourses closed [illegible] slightly firmer but there was no marked recovery.

NEW YORK, Oct 19—Special dispatches from London say the situation to-day is quite as gloomy as it seemed yesterday. There is indeed less excitement this morning in the stock exchange than yesterday but there is [illegible] a profounder conviction that a general war is inevitable. The tone of the leading [illegible] this morning, is not only depressed it is despairing. Leading writers seem to give up all hope that a general conflict can be avoided. It is conceded that no one can see the end of the complications.

NEW YORK, Oct 19—The Herald's London special says: My predictions a week ago that the political crisis was culminating without a [illegible] peace [illegible]

Sufficient was elicited to prove beyond doubt that the act was of his own seeking and that he preferred death to the alternative of public exposure of the late transaction of his in which he succeeded in raising a thousand dollars by altering the word "she" in a mortgage, by erasing the letter "s" and making it "he." He went home after drinking heavily, and sometime during the night took an ounce of laudanum. ## HAYES AND THE CIVIL SERVICE—CHAS NORDHOFF'S TESTIMONY.

Charles Nordhoff, whom the Springfield Republican characterizes as "one of the most independent and intelligent of independent and intelligent journalists—pains-taking, self-centred and conscientious, with the well-regulated, stem-winding, Methodist-conscience," has been giving his testimony concerning Governor Hayes, with whom he has enjoyed many years' personal acquaintance. "The gist of his testimony," says the Republican, "is that Hayes is a level-headed, brave, sincere, singularly unambitious gentleman, who understands himself perfectly, and is quite capable of taking care of himself. In particular, there is 'not the least muddle' in his political opinions. This revival of the sectional issue, all this war-drum and gunpowder-campaigns business, is 'very distasteful' to him; Nordhoff has reason to feel sure of it, and is convinced that nothing but the conventional usage which forbids Presidential candidates opening their lips during the canvass prevents Mr. Hayes from protesting against it."

The following extracts from his testimony, which the Republican copies, will strengthen the faith which the country has in Hayes' purpose to make civil service reform a success:

I was at his house soon after he had com[illegible] his [illegible] of acceptance, and he did me the favor to [illegible] me the printer's proof of it, [illegible] he had just received when I came to [illegible]. When he had read the part relating to [illegible] reform, I remarked to him that he had there spoken with such plainness as [illegible] be sure to give great and perhaps unnecessary offense to many prominent and very influential men in his party, and that he might thereby imperil his election. He replied, "What I have read to you is right, is it not?" I said, "Undoubtedly." "Then," said he, "it must stand. That is what I believe. You must not forget that I hold a peculiar position. I do not need to be elected. I did not ask for or work for the nomination, as you know; I can afford to be defeated; but, if I am defeated, it must be on this ground, which I believe right." He made no change.

* * * * *

[illegible] with some confidence of Governor [illegible] ons on the Southern question, [illegible] found him surprisingly well in[illegible] the nature of what has been [illegible] in [illegible] States, and concerning the [illegible] the prominent men of both parties down there. No greater calamity could, in my judgment, happen to the country than a continuance, for another four years, of such [illegible] administration in the South as has caused [illegible] and just discontent there during the past five or six years. I am confident, from what Gov. Hayes has said to me, that he thinks [illegible] also, and that he sees the true remedy to lie in the appointment to federal offices in the [illegible] of Southern men of character and in[illegible] in their States, whom I suspect he [illegible] from the Whig side; in rigid and [illegible] ging of the public service there, [illegible] it in the hands of capable and [illegible] and in non-interference by the [illegible] in the local affairs of those [illegible]

* * * * *

[illegible] found on a long and pretty in[illegible] knowledge of him, is, that Gov. Hayes [illegible] intelligent, zealous and courageous [illegible] of civil service reform, of a sound currency, of honest government and federal non[illegible] in the Southern States, and of a [illegible] commercial policy for the country. [illegible] He is a strict Republican, as [illegible] is a strict Democrat, but those [illegible] think they can "run him" will make the [illegible] mistake as those who fancied they could [illegible] Mr. Lincoln.

[illegible] Hayes will doubtless find [illegible] in a more difficult situation, when [illegible] President than he or any of [illegible] who expect the most of him re[illegible]. With the politicians of his party [illegible] against his efforts to reform the [illegible], the party organizations in [illegible] backing the politicians and the [illegible] of the country divided, he will need to have extraordinary firmness to carry his wholesome views into practice. He will have the conscientious intelligence of the nation with him, but he will have a [illegible] force of unconscientious intelligence, and a vast force that is neither conscientious nor intelligent against him.

YOU DON'T GET OFF THAT WAY, MR. STANDARD.

In response to our demand upon the Standard to make its charges against Richard Williams specific and come forward with [illegible] instead of assailing him by in[illegible], that high-toned journal says it accepts the issue of "put up or shut up," [illegible] it will not shut up." Why does it not come down to the work, instead of [illegible] to do so. Come, Mr. Standard, [illegible] will not answer. Promises are not a [illegible] tender in this case. Mr. Williams [illegible] not plead infancy, perturbation, the [illegible] of limitations, or "thirteen years of honorable endeavor," but challenges you to the issue. No squirming, no begging for time, in order that the thing may be forgotten and you escape the consequences of your false and defamatory action. Retraction, or proof; or the dishonor that rewards the malicious slanderer; one of these is unavoidable. Take your choice.

A curious example of a small matter being magnified into a great one, has occurred in connection with the publication of the North American Review. That old standard quarterly has long been edited by Henry B. Adams and Henry C. Lodge jointly. The editors' names not being announced, it has been the custom to attach to all articles not editorial the name of the author. Charles Francis Adams, jr., wrote, for the October number, an article on politics in which he reached the conclusion that independent voters would be more likely to accomplish the reforms they demand by electing Mr. Tilden President, than by electing Governor Hayes. It was proposed to publish this article without the name of the author. To this Mr. Osgood, the publisher, demurred. The editors insisted. The article was published without the name, but Mr. Osgood inserted a foot note disclaiming responsibility for the conclusion of the writer. That, it would seem ought to have been sufficient to set his conscience at rest, and the editors ought to have taken no offense at it, as Mr Osgood's is the only name published in the Review as responsible for its conduct. But the matter did not stop there. Both the editors retire, and the Review, after a long and prosperous course under their scholarly management, is to pass into new hands. It looks like a piece of foolish stubbornness. Charles Francis, Jr., took a good deal on himself to ask a departure in his favor from an established custom of the publication, the editors exhibited more obstinacy than courage in making a point of honor out of the case; and Mr. Osgood, who everybody knows is not editor, was unnecessarily sensitive. All round, the disagreement was one from which none of the parties will gain any great reputation.

State University bill has passed the Senate, and should pass the House. The diversion of a quarter of a mill of the bounty and relief tax to enlarge the University grounds and finish the building, will give the University a good send-off, without incurring the burden of taxation, the bounty and relief fund being in excess of the demands upon it. But the most important provision of the bill is that by which it secures the University fund against improvident handling and consequent loss. Under the present plan of loaning the fund there is really no security. We have heretofore called attention to some loans which will prove a loss of all the interest and the larger part of the principal. Such loans will be impossible under the bill which has passed the Senate. We hope the House may take favorable action on this bill before adjournment.

The country is to be congratulated upon the failure of the bills to levy a tax to build an Asylum for the Insane. The time will come when that will be expedient, but that time is not yet. The insane are well cared for at no extravagant rates, and the State is in no condition to bear any taxation that is not necessary. It will be time enough to begin the construction of an asylum when we get the State house sufficiently along to save the work already done on it, and afford accommodation for all the State officers, and the Supreme Court. Let us not take any more elephants till we can shelter those we already have.

It will be a great misfortune if the legislature adjourn without providing means to protect the cornice and cement the walls of the State capitol. The water has already found its way into the building in some places and marred the plastering. Before the end of the five or six months of rain on which we are entering, the building will be damaged many thousands of dollars, and the repairing of this damage, as well as the cost of the work now suggested, will have to be borne by the people. What the bill will amount to by the next biennial session of the legislature no one can tell.

We have received a copy of an address to the voters of Oregon, issued by the State greenback convention, which met at Salem on the 10th inst. While we cannot concur in the views expressed in the address on the subject of national finances, we must admit that the argument is not altogether on one side. From information which comes to us from various parts of the State, we are satisfied this nascent party will show more strength on election day than most people expect.

Spain has gone back at least half a century toward the dark ages, since the restoration of the Monarchy. Despotism seems to be the normal government of the Spanish people, and the only government capable of commanding the respect of the Spanish mind.

SOMETHING FOR SOLDIERS TO THINK OF.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 18, 1876.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

Permit me to ask as a volunteer who served during the late war, which party in the last session of Congress, so bitterly opposed the passage of the bill for the equalization of bounties? Whichever it was, it would be well for all honorably discharged soldiers to think twice before they vote that party into office again.

SOLDIERS' RIGHTS.

W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T., on the 13th inst., organized a lodge of Good Templars at Elkton, Douglas county, with a good membership. The following officers were installed: Thos. Hancock, W. C. T.; Josie Wells, W. V. T.; G. W. Benedict, W. S.; George Crenshaw, P. W. C. T.; and W. W. Wells, Lodge Deputy.

The following representatives have been elected by Washington Enc. No. 3, C. R. C.: Gov. E. P. Ferry, W. H. Roberts, Mrs. E. T. Munson, Joseph Chilberg, Mrs. S. P. Ferry, Mrs. Anna S. Hartsuck and J. H. Munson.

Howard Scott, of Thurston county, W. T., has been adjudged insane and ordered to the asylum.

CITY.

[illegible] AND HACK LOST.—Just a few minutes [illegible] arrival of the east side train at the [illegible]day afternoon, a team attached to [illegible] belonging to the Oregon Transfer Co. [illegible]ght and ran away. A large crowd of [illegible] were standing about the depot at the [illegible] for some reason, no one attempted [illegible] the animals. The driver had left the [illegible] along with a number of others [illegible]customed to do, while soliciting [illegible], when, taking fright at something, [illegible] down the roadway toward the [illegible]. Before reaching the boat the[illegible] were running at a rapid speed. They [illegible] the pontoon and dashed on the boat, [illegible] could be checked, they [illegible] full length of the ferry and went over [illegible] the other end. For some moments [illegible], and a rope was thrown under [illegible] but the weight proved too heavy, the [illegible] and everything went down like a [illegible] many who witnessed the whole [illegible] to the rescue in all haste, but the [illegible] so quickly that every effort [illegible] disastrous result proved unavailing. [illegible] that place the water is quite deep, [illegible] from 20 to 30 feet. ### BRIEF NOTES.

Several private parties are on the carpet.

The steamer Bonanza has been floated off safely.

Motion day in the State circuit court to morrow.

WEEKLY OREGONIAN, a splendid number now ready.

The clouds hang low and the mud daily grows deeper.

Remember the public speaking at Oro Fino Theater to-morrow evening.

The many friends of Mrs. Church, formerly of this city, will be glad to learn her health is unusually good, and her crippled hand is improving. She is residing at 130 Tyler street, San Francisco.

Sheriff Jeffery is now en route home overland from California. He will arrive here tomorrow evening. Mr. Jeffery has been East for some weeks.

Mrs. Eliza Ramsdell, well known in Portland, Salem, Olympia and Washington Territory, is Matron at the San Francisco city and county hospital.

Before the close of the term of the State Circuit Court, Mr. Watkind's working force will be materially increased. Several are to receive their sentences to morrow.

Rev. P. O. Buchanan, formerly pastor of Taylor street Church and principal of the Portland Academy, was granted a location at the late session of the California Conference.

J. C. Tobe was tried in the State Circuit Court yesterday on the charge of using a dangerous weapon with the intent to commit larceny, and after a short deliberation was acquitted.

The M. S. Hart whose name appears in connection with police court records, is not Wm. A. Hart, the gentlemanly and genial First Assistant and cigar dealer. Billy isn't that sort of a man.

The Catholic settlement in Washington county is in a flourishing condition. Rev. Edward Herman, recently from the East, has been appointed pastor of St. Francis Xavier's Church at that place.

The annual fair in aid of St. Vincent's Hospital will be held in this city during the latter part of next month. Next week we will give the names of the ladies who have generously consented to participate.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE MARIONETTES.—Another crowded house witnessed the performance last evening of the Royal Marionettes, at New Market Theater. Blondin, the hero of Niagara, in his wonderful tight rope performance, gave great satisfaction, as did the other features of the exhibition. To night another performance will be given, with several changes in the programme. Of the class, it is by all odds the best entertainment ever on the Pacific coast, and deserves liberal patronage. Ladies and little people will please bear in mind the matinee performance to morrow afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

For a fashionable suit of clothing go to Kohn's, corner First and Morrison streets.

Whether it be Hayes or Tilden as President, Barnes will serve coffee as usual.

Clothing, hats, furnishing goods, etc., at Kohn's, corner First and Morrison streets.

W. L. ADAMS, M. D., A. M., LL. D., corner of First and Salmon streets, is curing the most inveterate chronic diseases of all kinds at a low price, by medicated, electric lightning cream baths, and by combining the German and French with the American improved practice, mixed with a little common sense. His treatment is, in the main, entirely original, and works almost miracles, as his numerous patients will attest. Is extraordinarily successful in treating female complaints.

Sore eyes speedily relieved. The worst form of piles cured, and the most malignant cancers eradicated root and branch without the use of the knife, or the money refunded.

Salutary Stimulation.
When vital action is sluggish, a stimulant, provided it be pure and properly medicated, is the most reliable agent for imparting the necessary impetus to the semi-dormant organs, accelerating the languid circulation and averting the maladies to which functional inactivity gives rise. Physicians who have employed Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in their practice pronounce it the most salutary tonic stimulant that have ever used, and especially commend it as a remedy for torpidity of the bowels, liver, stomach and kidneys, and as a resuscitant of vital energy. The medicinal value of the Bitters is due to the fact that with their basis of pure old rye are combined, in perfect chemical harmony, the best restorative and life sustaining elements known to medical botany. The Bitters never deteriorate in the most unfavorable climates.

HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM preserves and restores the complexion; removes freckles, tan and sallowness; makes the skin soft, white and delicate. Its application cannot be detected.

LYON'S KATHAIRON makes b autiful, glossy, luxuriant hair; prevents its falling out or turning gray. It has stood the test of 40 years. Is charmingly perfumed, and has no rival.

NO NEED TO VISIT EXPENSIVE SPAS for Sulphur Baths, when the same effects can be produced at home with a few cakes of GLENN'S SULPHUR SOAP, an acknowledged specific for skin diseases, contagious or otherwise.

He is Truly a Stump Speaker
Who, when talking, exhibits a mouthful of stumps. If you would keep your dental fixtures in perfect talking order, use the fragrant SOZODONT daily; the recipe is simple but sure.

Cramps and pains in the stomach are the result of imperfect indigestion, and may be immediately relieved by a dose of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. A teaspoonful in a little sweetened water is a dose.

Heavy oats are good for horses; none will deny that; but oats can't make a horse's coat look smooth and glossy when he is out of condition. Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders will do this when all else fails.

LETTER FROM PACIFIC COUNTY, W. T.

THE BOILING OF THE POLITICAL POT.

OYSTERVILLE, Oct. 10, 1876.

To the Editor of the Oregonian:

Politics are lively here this year, and men who, in the last Presidential campaign, did not know if Horace Greeley was a Democrat or Republican (some say he didn't know himself), now seem to be well satisfied that Tilden is a true and thorough Democrat. The Republican party is steadily increasing, but as an active part can be taken only in Territorial and county politics, there is still an independent party in existence. Democracy is slowly dying a natural death.

A CLUB

Was org[illegible]ed here some time ago, called the "Y[illegible] Men's Republican Club," rumored to be under the leadership of certain old political [illegible], trying to exert their influence under this youthful appellation. However that might have been, it is now pretty well understood that the young men themselves are at the head, and tail too, for that matter, counting among their numbers the most re[illegible] youths of the village, their object [illegible] to keep a reading room and debating [illegible], to acquire knowledge in political [illegible].

PUBLIC SPEECHES

W[illegible] delivered in the court house on Monday [illegible], October 9th, by the two respective [illegible] for Joint Representative—T. War[illegible] and J. Rhodes, (Ind.). A large [illegible] of ladies and gentlemen were present. Mr. Warman, in an able speech, set forth the issues of the day as concerning this [illegible], frequently interrupted by opposition from Mr. Griswold, and loudly [illegible] by the [illegible]. Mr. Rhodes [illegible] disadvantage, as very few [illegible] party were present, and [illegible] been [illegible] by the article [illegible] WEEKLY OREGONIAN by Mr. [illegible] three-fourths of the population [illegible] birth, and consider them[illegible]. ### LAND FOR IMMIGRANTS.

Choice Farms for Sale.

4,000 ACRES, IN QUANTITIES TO SUIT PURCHASERS.

230 ACRES DUE SOUTH AND ADJOINING the Railroad Depot at Salem, all under cultivation, and suitable for grain or vegetables.

940 Acres, four miles southeast of Salem, on the railroad, with Mill creek running through it. This is the choicest farming land in Marion county, with fine springs, consisting in part of the old Rector donation claim, on which I raised the past year fifty bushels of wheat and three tons of timothy per acre. The first crop of oats ever raised on part of this land measured ninety-four bushels per acre, grain weighed and ground chained by Mr. Alfred Stanton, of Salem.

2,700 Acres of prairie and light brush land, with timber for farming purposes, bounded by the Willamette River for four miles, beautiful lake on the east, boat landings all along the river, commencing four miles north of Salem—all choice grain land—the largest and most suitable body of land to be found in the Willamette Valley to be purchased by a colony. To be sold from $15 to $25 per acre. This land will all be immediately resurveyed and can be sold in larger or smaller parcels, to suit purchasers. It can be subdivided to the best possible advantage, and I can offer any person or persons, or colony of persons, desiring to purchase homes in the best part of the Willamette Valley, near the city of Salem and within reach of the best social advantages, as well as most favorably located with respect to markets, greater advantages, on more favorable terms, than they can ever expect to realize again.
